

Why Zane is AWESOME

First of all, not only is he the first nindroid in existence, but he also has a great sense of humor.

"Yes, it was a joke, haha."

-Zane Julian, 2011

He also reveals surprising facts about those around him: how tolerant they are of Autism (because he's heavily autistic-coded, especially in the earlier seasons, and not in a bad way!!) and even whether or not they can drink tea underwater!

(yes, the image is of Zane and Wu both underwater, the latter casually drinking tea.)

He even has prophetic dreams!!!!

(which is especially impressive for a robot)

And Finally, the biggest reason of all:

He's really

Really

Really cool.

(And totally rocks pink gi.)
